= Very strong alignment

= Partial alignment

Alignment between the Pre-AP English High School Course Framework and the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts is described as very strong or partial. A very strong alignment is one in which the majority of standards are fully addressed by the mapped Pre-AP Learning Objectives (LOs). A partial alignment is one in which the standards are partially addressed by the corresponding Pre-AP Learning Objectives. Partial alignment can occur when one framework includes greater specificity or extends beyond the scope of the other framework. Given the focused nature of the Pre-AP course framework, some partial alignments are to be expected.

Alignment at a Glance: Partial

Discipline Highlights

While the overall alignment between the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for ELA and the Pre-AP English High School Course Framework is very strong, there are a few areas of partial alignment due to the more granular nature of some of the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for ELA.

There are few partial alignments, and most are focused on discrete skills such as attending to specific punctuation and setting rules for peer discussions.

The Pre-AP framework includes opportunities to address a range of discrete skills within broader learning objectives, such as LO 3.3A, "Compose or revise language to ensure sentences are grammatically correct and that their internal structures provide clarity," and LO 5.1A, "Extend the conversation around an idea, topic, or text by formulating questions and recognizing the claims and perspectives of others."
