Pre-AP English 2 and the Arizona English Language Arts Standards: Alignment Summary

Pre-AP courses focus deeply on a limited number of concepts and skills with the broadest relevance for high school coursework and college and career success. The course framework serves as the foundation of the course and defines these prioritized concepts and skills.

When teaching a Pre-AP course, teachers have purposeful time and space to bring their own voice and lessons into each unit to best meet the needs of their students and address the full range of state standards. This alignment summary demonstrates the deep connections between the Pre-AP English High School Course Framework and the Arizona English Language Arts Standards to support teachers and schools in their planning. Along with the corresponding standards crosswalk, teachers and schools can use this alignment summary when planning and preparing to implement Pre-AP English 2.

Alignment between the Pre-AP English High School Course Framework and Arizona’s English Language Arts Standards is described as very strong or partial. A very strong alignment is one in which the majority of standards are fully addressed by the mapped Pre-AP Learning Objectives (LOs). A partial alignment is one in which the standards are partially addressed by the corresponding Pre-AP Learning Objectives. Partial alignment can occur when one framework includes greater specificity or extends beyond the scope of the other framework. Given the focused nature of the Pre-AP course framework, some partial alignments are to be expected.
Alignment at a Glance: Partial

Discipline Highlights

- While the overall alignment between the Arizona English Language Arts Standards and the Pre-AP English High School Course Framework is very strong, there are a few areas of partial alignment due to the more granular nature of some of Arizona’s English Language Arts Standards.

- There are a few partial alignments related to very discrete skills such as attending to specific punctuation and setting rules for peer discussions.

- The Pre-AP framework includes opportunities to address a range of discrete skills within broader learning objectives such as LO 3.3A, “Compose or revise language to ensure sentences are grammatically correct and that their internal structures provide clarity,” and LO 5.1A, “Extend the conversation around an idea, topic, or text by formulating questions and recognizing the claims and perspectives of others.”

Summary

Beyond alignments to the course framework, it is also important for educators to turn to the Pre-AP Shared Principles and Pre-AP English Areas of Focus to understand the full picture of alignment between Pre-AP English 2 and Arizona’s English Language Arts Standards. The shared principles and areas of focus represent the Pre-AP approach to teaching and learning, and these principles deeply address skill development and disciplinary practices that cannot be easily captured within a standards crosswalk. In summary, there are ample opportunities for teachers to address Arizona’s English Language Arts Standards with confidence throughout this course.
