

Pre-AP World History and Geography and South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards: Alignment Summary

Pre-AP courses focus deeply on a limited number of concepts and skills with the broadest relevance for high school coursework and college and career success. The course framework serves as the foundation of the course and defines these prioritized concepts and skills.

When teaching a Pre-AP course, teachers have purposeful time and space to bring their own voice and lessons into each unit to best meet the needs of their students and address the full range of state standards. This alignment summary demonstrates the deep connections between the Pre-AP World History and Geography Course Framework and the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards to support teachers and schools in their planning. Along with the corresponding standards crosswalk, teachers and schools can use this alignment summary when planning and preparing to implement Pre-AP World History and Geography.

Alignment at a Glance: Very Strong

South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards:

- Modern World History
Commerce, Innovation, and Expansion
Emergence of the Modern World
Integration
World Power Struggle
- Human Geography
Cultural Patterns and Processes
Economic Development
Political Organization of Space
Population and Migration

Discipline Highlights

Overall, the alignment between the Pre-AP World History and Geography Course Framework and the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards is very strong.

Across both courses of the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards, the majority of the standards are covered in full or in part by the Pre-AP course framework.

The South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards and the Pre-AP World History and Geography Course Framework share the strongest alignment in the Modern World History course. The alignment is particularly strong in the Commerce, Innovation, and Expansion; Emergence of the Modern World; and World Power Struggle key concepts.

= Very strong alignment

= Partial alignment

Alignment between the Pre-AP World History and Geography Course Framework and the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards is described as very strong or partial. A very strong alignment is one in which the majority of standards are fully addressed by the mapped Pre-AP Learning Objectives (LOs). A partial alignment is one in which the standards are partially addressed by the corresponding Pre-AP Learning Objectives. Partial alignment can occur when one framework includes greater specificity or extends beyond the scope of the other framework. Given the focused nature of the Pre-AP course framework, some partial alignments are to be expected.

Alignment at a Glance: Partial

South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards:

- Modern World History
Nationalism and Industrialization
- Human Geography
Urban Land Use

Discipline Highlights

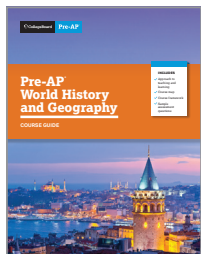

While the overall alignment between the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards and the Pre-AP World History and Geography framework is very strong, there are a few areas of partial alignment due to the more granular nature of some of the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards.

Pre-AP has an intentionally narrow focus on a prioritized set of concepts. For example, the Human Geography course of the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards includes the key concept, Urban Land Use. This concept addresses cities and their development, which is not explicitly covered by the course framework. However, the Pre-AP learning objectives related to regions and spatial organization provide a foundation for addressing these topics.

Summary

Beyond alignments to the course framework, it is also important for educators to turn to the Pre-AP Shared Principles and Pre-AP World History and Geography Areas of Focus to understand the full picture of alignment between Pre-AP World History and Geography and the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards. The shared principles and areas of focus represent the Pre-AP approach to teaching and learning, and these principles deeply address skill development and disciplinary practices that cannot be easily captured within a standards crosswalk. In summary, there are ample opportunities for teachers to address the South Carolina Social Studies College- and Career-Ready Standards with confidence throughout this course.

Learn more about Pre-AP World History and Geography at preap.org